Defendant.)

Now comes the United States of America, through its counsel, Bridget M. Brennan, Acting United States Attorney, Brian S. Deckert and Daniel J. Riedl, Assistant United States Attorneys, and hereby submits this unopposed Motion for Protective Order agreed to by the parties governing the provisions of discovery materials to the Defendant in this case pursuant to Rule 16(d)(1) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. Such protective order is necessary, to reasonably protect the interests of the owners of the information which contains proprietary information from Eaton Corp. in this matter.

A proposed Stipulated Protective Order is attached, which counsel for the Defendant and Eaton Corp. have reviewed and approved.

WHEREFORE, the Government respectfully requests that the Court adopt the proposed Stipulated Protective Order, and further to allow the Government to supplement its arguments in support in any additional briefing or hearing, as the Court may deem necessary.

Respectfully submitted,

BRIDGET M. BRENNAN
Acting United States Attorney
